

January 17, 2012

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to endorse Miss Liang Danxun as an excellent candidate for your organization and serve this as a reference letter for your consideration.

Miss Liang Danxun has been our intern for our Synergy Financial Organization of The Prudential Assurance Company Limited in January, 2012. The purpose of this internship program is to provide our youngsters an opportunity to expose themselves to the real business world.

During this program, Miss Liang Danxun has demonstrated herself as an energetic, participative and creative player in both team and group as a whole. She is a cheerful girl who has an ability to team up other members to complete various tasks.

Because of her outstanding performance and commitment in the program, she has been awarded one of the outstanding interns for the program. Therefore, it is no doubt that she has got great potential to advance herself to higher levels in future, either in terms of her academic study or career development.

Should you have and further enquiry concerning this reference letter, please feel free to contact the undersigned. I am happy to reply to you.

Thank you for your kind attention.

Truly Sincerely,

Henry Cheng
Senior Regional Director