

March 13th, 2020

Emphasis

In accordance to current epidemic situation of novel coronavirus disease (COVID-19), students are requested not to return to China and school before the school opening date or without permission! Those who do not follow the rule will be punished accordingly.

School of International Education

North University of China